I was pleasantly surprised! The flow of the story is very nice and it kept me entertained. The characters are believable and you can tell that the author really put their heart into it. I can't wait for more stories from this author!

When Emaly Hudson decides to spend her summer with her estranged mother in New York, she gets more than she bargains for when she meets Danny Wilder. Rich, young and full of secrets, he will take her on a ride she will never forget. First love is always the sweetest but the downpour is always the hardest.
